

HONEY BEE FESTIVAL Advance registration required

Note Date Change

Wednesday May 17th or Thursday May 18th 10:30 am to 11:45 am

Many children have a fear of bees--after all, they can sting! We will learn about honey bees and why they are so beneficial. Indeed, without these social and cooperative insects, many plants including food crops would die out. We will make bee antennae headbands and a fuzzy bee on a stick puppet. We will snack on bread and honey, then take our bee puppets outside to fly. For ages 2-1/2 and older with a grown up. All ages are welcome. $18; $10 for each additional child per family.

Save the date: Summer Solstice Family Festival Monday June 19th 10:30 to 11:45 am. All ages are welcome to join us as we celebrate the longest day of the year!
